

BARRENS TO BAY SUMMER CAMP

There's no place like Long Island's Pine Barrens, and the best way to explore it all is at Barrens to Bay Summer Camp at Wertheim National Wildlife Refuge, where your child will seine the Carmans River, spend hands-on time with live animals, investigate species through a microscope, hike nature trails and engage in many other fun activities and learning experiences!

The camp runs in three weekly sessions for six to nine-year-old campers beginning on July 1 and three weekly sessions for 10 to 12-year-old campers beginning on July 22. Space is limited, so be sure to register early!

To register, complete the form on the reverse side.
