Summary of Fees Required by Similar Agencies/Commissions

- Adirondack Park Agency – No fees required for applications.
- Albany Pine Bush Preserve Commission – pending receipt of fee schedule, if any.
- Cape Cod Commission – see attached fee schedule.
- Columbia River Gorge Commission – pending receipt of fee schedule, if any.
- Martha’s Vineyard Commission – The Commission has a fee schedule for Developments of Regional Impact (similar to Developments of Regional Significance in the Central Pine Barrens). The schedule is not posted on their website, but we have requested a copy.
- New Jersey Pinelands – see attached fee schedule.

The Central Pine Barrens Commission currently does not require application fees. Currently, the only charge to an application is payment for the hearing notice to be published in a newspaper publication.

The Commission pays for stenographer fees to prepare transcripts for public hearings on Hardship Waiver applications. Stenographer fees are approximately $200 to $700 or more if more than one public hearing is held on a single application.
